

Northwest Women's Coaching Alliance Panel Presentation

Title: "Women Staying in the Game: Making the Move from Player to Coach"

Date: Sunday, February 21st at 5 pm (PT)

Register By Friday, February 19th: <https://forms.gle/d3iKgQzYqgoByCPh6>

Presenting Panel:

Karla Thompson

- Current USSF (United States Soccer Federation) Coach Educator and creating revolutionary mentorship opportunities for women in soccer through her work with the Jill Ellis Scholarship Fund and the She Champions Mentorship Program. Thompson, who heads the Coaching Education Department's diversity initiatives, leads the mentorship program
- Former Colorado College All-American
- Post college was offered a contract with a professional league in Japan but decided to pursue aviation in the Air Force

Jen Klein

- Current Head Coach at the University of Michigan
- Former Asst. Coach at USC, winning a National Championship
- Former Asst. Coach at Washington State University
- Former Head Coach at the University of Las Vegas

Tina Ellertson

- Current Asst. Coach at the University of Washington
- Former Professional player with the Portland Thorns
- Former player of the United States Women's National Team

Twila Kaufman

- Current Assistant Coach for the Houston Dash
- U19 Women's National Team Head Coach in 2020
- Former Head Coach at UC Davis
- Former Assistant Coach at Pepperdine University

Noelle LaPrevotte

- Played soccer at the University of Portland from 2012-2015
- Earned 4x All-WCC honors, team captain in 2015
- Former Id2 and North Cal ODP Participant
- Former player for Casa Grande High School, 2x Sonoma County League MVP, 2X North Coast Section Champion (2008-2012)

Questions: Reach out to Tracy Nelson nelsontrac7@gmail.com or Holly Cooper holly.pierce@hotmail.com